STRÆDERNE

1

Sankt Peders Stræde, Larsbjørnsstræde & Studiøstræde

Known to the danes as "Pisserenden" this street offers some of Copenhagen's best coffeeplaces. "Next door cafe" is the neighbourhoods go-to place where everyone is on a first-name basis and the friendly service leaves a smile on your face. "Atlas bar" serves vegetarian food made with love, while "Cafe salongen" gives you a good taste of everything.

BARS

2

Montergade 8, Sværtegade 7, Klareboderne 14

The danes love beer and bodegas, and that may be why the inner part of the city offers numerous great places to visit. Placed right around the corner from each other these three bodegas awaits with open arms and danish brewed beer. Getting to these bodegas early is recommended since people have a habit of staying late.

FORTUNEN

3

Ved stranden 18, 1061 Copenhagen K

The trendy restaurant at day and hot bar at night has become one of the most spoken of places the last year. If you like a vibrant night out on the town, this is certainly your first stop. The boys behind Fortunen also runs "Dyrehaven" (a cool cafe at vesterbro for young hipsters) and the nightclub called "Bakken" in the meat packing district.

PALUDAN BOG & CAFE

4

Fiolstræde 10, 1171 Copenhagen K

With a lovely concept of the fusion of a bookstore and cafe, "Paludan" succeeds gracefully at both. The cafe has good servings at reasonable prices and loads of beautiful old leather bound books on the shelves. "Paludan" certainly is worth the visit.

RETRO CAFE

5

Knabrostræde 26, 1210 Copenhagen K

Run solely by volunteers the multi-cultural staff of Retro cafe welcomes you to one of Copenhagen's coziest cafes. The two-story cafe offers coffee at a very decent price while being submerged in their comfortable couches.

TORVEHALLERNE

6

Frederiksborggade 21, 1360 Copenhagen K

If you have a taste for the finer foods Torvehallerne is warmly recommended. The outdoor area is highly utilized in the summer giving the place constant life. While in the winter going inside to smell the spices or just the warmth that is needed to explore the rest of the city.

KALASET

7

Vendersgade 16, 1363 Copenhagen K

Great place to gather strength after a long stroll, and maybe a game of backgammon. The menu features a great house-burger and a tasty salad. Saturdays has a "2 for 1" on beer and cocktails between 10-12 pm. The cocktails are cleverly mashed up with the name of a drink and famous person such as Mango Brandon.

KØDBYEN

8

Flæsketorvet, 1711 Copenhagen V

If your are looking for a party you can be sure to find atleast a few at "The Meatpacking District". The area also offers the best contemporary galerie, we especially recommend Vi. Oh... and remember to have a smoking dinner at Chicky Grill.

GAY BARS - AROUND STUDIØSTRÆDE

9

Sankt Peders Stræde, Larsbjørnsstræde & Studiøstræde

The gay scene thrives well in the open-minded city of Copenhagen. "Masken", "Cozy" & "Loglady" are just some of the bars where you can experience this fact.

The outdoor bathing spot is sadly only open in the summer but when open you will never be in doubt where most of the danes are grilling or getting their daily dosis of C-vitamin.
